

2023 in Review

20 hot lunches were served each week for our Monday Club.

Over 2700 members attended our BS3 Food club and accessed affordable food.

343 food bags containing fresh fruit & veg were given out to support families from local primary schools thanks to a donation from Quartet.

24 older people were supported in our digital inclusion workshops, Connect with Ease.

249 people got creative at our Summer Art Clubs.

Our Cosy Christmas film and Carol singing events were enjoyed by 85 people.

640 people attended our holiday Stay & Play sessions throughout the year.

2023 in Review

Food

20 hot lunches were served each week for our Monday Club.

Over 2700 members attended our BS3 Food club and accessed affordable food.

343 food bags containing fresh fruit & veg were given out to support families from local primary schools thanks to a donation from Quartet.

Jackie Smith and a food club volunteer received an award from the Fareshare social impact awards in October.

20 people attended the food club Craft & Cooking event in August.

2023 in Review

Events

249 people got creative at our Summer Art Clubs.

640 people attended our holiday Stay & Play sessions throughout the year.

24 stallholders selling beautiful handmade items, took part in the South Bristol Arts Trail in September.

Our movie night with meatballs brought 52 people to the evening we hosted with Batch Cook Club.

48 people came to our Coronation Big Lunch in May, and 45 people went to the Coronation meal at Marksbury rd.

2023 in Review

Community Connectors

411 people attended one off/special events, including..

30 people updated their wardrobe by coming to the Clothes Swap and mend event at Quakers meeting house.

25 people came to the community singing workshop at Marksbury rd.

25 people got creative at the Christmas Needle Felting workshop at Bedminster Quaker House.

12 people went on a day trip to the RWA art gallery as part of the art group at Hollidge Gardens.

2023 in Review

Christmas Events

Our Cosy Christmas film and Carol singing events - showing Elf & The Grinch, were enjoyed by 85 people.

30 older people came to our Monday Club Community Christmas party.

40 people attended the Community Connector's Christmas Craft Party.

12 people from the Hollidge Garden art group enjoyed a Christmas meal at the Brunel Pub thanks to some funding by John James Foundation.

100 people had festive fun at our Christmas holiday Stay & Play session.

2023 in Review

Other

24 older people were supported in our digital inclusion workshops, Connect with Ease.

8 people regularly Stroll & Chat each week for around an hour.